

ASSEMBLIES

Pilamaya Ye

Music and legends celebrating Native American philosophy

Our Home Planet Earth

A 6' diameter globe takes center stage in this environmental program

The Blue Planet - Our World Under The Sea

A fun, educational journey under the sea - the earth's largest habitat

Ancient Myths And Fairy Tales

Lou Del Bianco acts out some of the oldest stories ever told

Lou is also offering the shows "Celebrate America!" and "Hans Christian Anderson."

WORKSHOPS

Introduction to Impressionist Painting

Every color in the palette is used in this spontaneous method of painting

Above And Beyond Standardized Testing

Alicia Washington sows the seeds of creative and academic skills

Solid Brass Master Class

World-class musicians share their knowledge, insights and expertise

Art and Science Workshop - Human Body/Figure Drawing

Drawing the human body is simplified into ovals and circles

Nature Journaling

Students learn how to record their thoughts, observations and discoveries

Photography - Importance of Light

Students learn the importance of light in photography in creative ways!

Grid Method Of Drawing

Looking at a picture as small pieces allows anyone to draw

RESIDENCIES

Above And Beyond Standardized Testing

Multi-sensory strategies and tools help students express their thoughts and ideas

Camera Techniques And Composition In Photography

Students will learn how to use aperture and shutter speeds to create interesting images

Songwriting With Scot Cannon

Students will write a class song and then work in the "recording studio" to create a CD

Impressionist Painting Residency

Novice artists learn to paint landscapes, still lifes and portraits in this style

Nature Journaling Residency

Strong observation and mindful recording of facts & feelings as students study nature

Project Impact Arts In Education New Programs for 2010-2011

Watch your mail for our
New Brochure!

201-493-2033
www.projectimpact.org